Westalee Rulers BOM fourth Saturday of each month

Teacher: Shirley Horton certified instructor with Sew Steady, Westalee Rulers

786 566-3576 TXT email: shrlhorton@gmail.com

Date: Saturday, May 26

10:30 – 12:30 OR 1:30 – 3:30

Cost: $25 + supplies

This class is an exciting new way for you to be able to quilt your own quilts with Westalee rulers. You will need the beginner entry level rulers for this class The class will be a block of the month. You know the saying it's easier than it looks, it literally is. Each month we will make 1-2 12 inch blocks in the form of a quilt sandwich (fabric, batting and fabric.) utilizing one ruler per month. Please! Students are encouraged to play with that ruler for the rest of the month and bring in for show and tell what quilting designs you have created. I think you will be amazed at how creative you are and didn't know it. So you will need to pick fabric for the back and the front and coordinating thread. At the end of the project we will put all the blocks together as a whole cloth quilt in a quilt as you go method. I am so excited to be presenting this class for you. I fell in love with these rulers and i think you will too.
